Welcome to the 22nd annual celebration of Presidents at Pops. This evening, we take great pride in saluting the companies that have placed their confidence in, and given their loyalty to, the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Tonight we thank you, our community's business leaders, for always giving so generously to the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops Orchestras. We recognize that our local economy continues to present challenges and limits your ability to give to all the causes in which you believe. For that reason, we want to say a special thanks to the companies that went the extra mile to be here tonight. Your presence says you believe that music and the arts are essential to the quality and vitality of life in Boston.

As a result of your efforts and support for the BSO's corporate programs, including Business and Professional Friends of the BSO, Presidents at Pops and A Company Christmas at Pops, the BSO will continue to make music of the highest quality, and to serve its many constituencies. Over the past 22 years, Boston's business community has raised more than $35 million, which has made it possible for the BSO to provide free concerts on the Esplanade, at Franklin Park, on the Boston Common, and at the Reggie Lewis Center at Roxbury Community College. You have enabled the BSO to serve more than 60,000 students annually in grades K-12 through BSO Youth Concerts at Symphony Hall, the "Days in the Arts at Tanglewood" summer camp program, the "Godparent Program," which sends musicians to public schools as teaching artists, and numerous community partnerships with schools throughout the Commonwealth.

So stand up and take a bow – you deserve our applause tonight! Your generosity allows the BSO to be the best it can be and to give back to our community. Here's to the first 22 years of what we hope will be a lasting and rewarding partnership for many years to come.

With sincere thanks,

R. Robert Popeo

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA BUSINESS LEADERSHIP ASSOCIATION

The Boston Symphony Orchestra, the world's largest symphonic organization, strives to make music relevant, accessible and vital to each generation. Ticket sales alone cannot generate the resources required to sustain the Boston Symphony's extensive programs. The organization depends on gifts of time and financial support to continue to enrich lives through great symphonic music.

Support from local, national, and international companies is essential to the BSO's ability to maintain its position as an international leader in the world of music. Each year, ticket sales cover only 60 percent of the orchestra's costs. Private sources contribute the rest.

The BSO's Business Leadership Association comprises all businesses that contribute annually to the Boston Symphony Orchestra through corporate events, by becoming corporate members, and by acting as corporate sponsors. Companies can become members with a minimum gift of $2,000.

Membership in the BLA offers a wealth of opportunities to entertain and reward clients and employees. An investment in the future of the BSO enriches the New England economy as well as the vitality of life in our state, making Boston and the Berkshires outstanding places to live and to work.

Members of the BLA support the BSO's youth and community outreach programs, and the orchestra's efforts to reach into the region's public schools and to help provide high quality arts experiences for more than 60,000 students each year. The BSO's youth education programs, including Youth Concerts, have introduced thousands of schoolchildren to the joy of classical music.

For more information about Business and Professional Friends of the BSO, Presidents at Pops, A Company Christmas at Pops, and Corporate Sponsorships, contact the Corporate Programs Office at (617) 638-9466.

ABOUT THE POPS

KEITH LOCKHART

Timeline History of the Boston Pops

1885

Emulating continental garden concerts, the BSO establishes the first Promenade Concert at the old Boston Music Hall. It's the start of a great American musical tradition.

1899

The Promenade Concerts become more "American" with more American music and the adoption of John Philip Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever!" as its regular grand finale.

1900

With the infusion of more "popular" American music in its programs, the Promenade Concerts are now officially known as the "Pops."

1930

After several decades of European conductors, the BSO appoints American-born Arthur Fiedler, a violist in the orchestra, to take up the baton.

For the next 50 years, Maestro Fiedler reshapes the Pops for the twentieth century, bringing music to the east bank of the Charles River with free Esplanade Concerts, and rousing audiences with symphonic jazz and Broadway hits.

1935

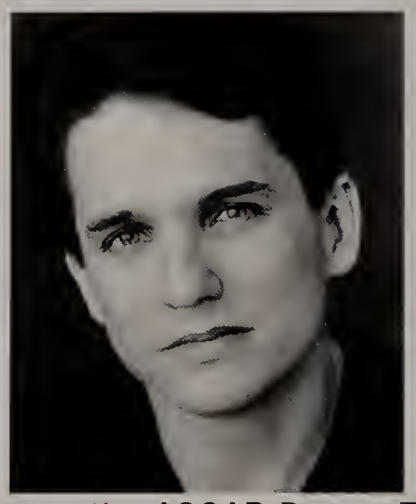

Maestro Fiedler leads the Pops, under the name "The Boston Pops Orchestra," in its first recordings. "Jalousie" becomes the first orchestral record to sell more than a million copies.

1952

Arthur Fiedler continues to propel the Boston Pops into the national and international limelight with local radio broadcasts and ...

1970

...with "Evening at Pops" on national public television.

In February 1995, Keith Lockhart was named twentieth conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra since its founding in 1885. Now in his ninth season as conductor of the Boston Pops, Keith Lockhart has maintained a busy schedule. He has conducted more than 600 concerts and made 50 television shows, including 31 new programs for PBS's Evening at Pops, the annual Pops Goes The Fourth! produced by WCVB-TV 5 in Boston and shown nationally on A&E, and Holiday at Pops, also broadcast on A&E. The 2002 Evening at Pops telecast of "Fiddlers Three," led by Mr. Lockhart, won the ASCAP Deems Taylor Award in the Television Broadcast category. Mr. Lockhart has also led two Boston Pops performances at Carnegie Hall, nineteen national tours, and three overseas tours of Japan and Korea. Under Mr. Lockhart's direction, the orchestra has broadened its touring activities, performing to enthusiastic audiences in concert halls and sports arenas across the country. Most recently, Mr. Lockhart led the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra on a Richard Rodgers Celebration Tour to Florida and the Carolinas. In February 2002, he led the Boston Pops in the pregame show of Super Bowl XXXVI at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. Since 1996, Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops Orchestra have recorded exclusively with RCA Victor. Mr. Lockhart's first six albums with the Boston Pops Orchestra on RCA Victor – Runnin' Wild: The Boston Pops Play Glenn Miller (1996), American Visions (1997), the Grammy-nominated The Celtic Album (February 1998), Holiday Pops (September 1998), A Splash of Pops (1999), and the Latin Grammy-nominated The Latin Album (2000) – all received critical and popular acclaim. A compilation album entitled Encore!, featuring tracks from the previous five recordings, was released in March 2000. The orchestra's latest recording, My Favorite Things – A Richard Rodgers Celebration, was released in April 2002.

Born in Poughkeepsie, NY, in November 1959, Keith Lockhart began his musical studies with piano lessons at the age of seven. He holds degrees from Furman University in Greenville, SC, and Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh. Mr. Lockhart came to the Boston Pops from Cincinnati, where he served as associate conductor of both the Cincinnati Symphony and Cincinnati Pops orchestras. Music director of the Utah Symphony since 1998, Mr. Lockhart led that orchestra at the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City. As a guest artist, Mr. Lockhart has conducted the major symphony orchestras of Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Los Angeles, Montreal, New York, Philadelphia, Singapore, Toronto, and Vancouver. In September 2002, he opened the Saint Louis Symphony season with a gala concert featuring cellist Yo-Yo-Ma, and on New Year's Eve 2002, he led the Deutsches Symphonie-Orchester in Berlin. Upcoming engagements include performances with the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam in June 2003, and the Toronto and Baltimore symphonies during the 2003-04 season. He will make his Boston Lyric Opera debut next season, leading Tosca in March and April of 2004. Notable past engagements include his first major opera production, Douglas Moore's The Ballad of Baby Doe, with the Washington (DC) Opera and recent debuts with the New York Chamber Symphony, the Houston Symphony, and the New Japan Philharmonic.

Following Fiedler's death in 1979, the BSO appoints a new conductor, John Williams, an American composer of popular film scores including "Star Wars."

John Williams preserves the Pops' musical excellence with new compositions, touring, and best-selling recordings.

1993
John Williams assumes the title of Laureate Conductor.

1995
Keith Lockhart raises the baton for a new generation of Boston Pops fans.

1997
On the heels of "Runnin' Wild," the first recording by Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops Orchestra, RCA Victor releases "American Visions" and the orchestra records "The Celtic Album."

1998
The fourth Keith Lockhart/Boston Pops Orchestra recording, "Holiday Pops," is released.

1999
"The Celtic Album" is nominated for a Grammy and the fifth Keith Lockhart/BPO recording, "A Splash of Pops," is released.

2000
A compilation album entitled "Encore!," and "The Latin Album" are released. Symphony Hall marks its centennial.

2001
"The Latin Album" is nominated for a Latin Grammy.

2002
Bruce Hangen is appointed Principal Pops Guest Conductor. "My Favorite Things: A Richard Rodgers Celebration" is released.

2003
The Boston Pops and the greater Boston community recently lost Harry Ellis Dickson, whose association with the Boston Symphony Orchestra as a violinist and as assistant and associate Pops Conductor, spanned more than sixty years.

GUEST ARTISTS

Michael Chertock

Michael Chertock's numerous orchestral appearances include concerto performances with l'Orchestre Symphonique du Montreal, the Boston Pops, the Toronto Symphony, the Baltimore Symphony, the Naples Philharmonic, the Detroit Symphony, the Utah Symphony, and the Indianapolis Symphony. He made his Carnegie Hall debut in 1999 with the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra, performing Duke Ellington's New World A'Comin'. In August 2001, he made his debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra, and he performed Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 at the Ravinia Festival in September 2002. This year he performed Olivier Messiaen's Turangalîla-Symphonie with the Aspen Festival Orchestra under the direction of James Conlon, and also with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, to rave reviews. Mr. Chertock has toured Asia with Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra and with Erich Kunzel and the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra. In 1999, Mr. Chertock made his conducting debut with the Cincinnati Ballet in performances of The Nutcracker. In 1994, he released Cinematic Piano, his first compact disc on the Telarc label, a collection of piano music from the movies. The recording has sold more than 30,000 units worldwide. In 1997, Telarc released his second recording, Palace of the Winds, which features music from movies such as Shine, The English Patient, and Immortal Beloved. He has also recorded Christmas at the Movies and Love At the Movies, an album of songs from classic romantic films. Michael Chertock was recently named conductor of the Blue Ash Symphony in suburban Cincinnati, Ohio, his first professional conducting appointment. Among Mr. Chertock's notable performances are the 1991 Cincinnati premiere of Liszt's Third Piano Concerto, the Boston premiere of the Leroy Anderson Piano Concerto in 1993, under the direction of Erich Kunzel, and the Cincinnati premiere of the Lutoslawski Piano Concerto in 1996. In New York City in 1994, he performed, with Cincinnati pianist Frank Weinstock, the world premiere of Notta Sonata by Jonathan Kramer, a piece for two pianos and percussion. Mr. Chertock first performed publicly at the age of 11, and at age 14 he performed on live television in Guam. At 17, he performed Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 3 with Andrew Litton and the Arlington Symphony Orchestra. He holds a master's degree from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, where he studied with Frank Weinstock. He has garnered numerous awards at major competitions, among them the top prize in the 1989 Joanna Hodges International Piano Competition (Brahms Division), and the grand prize in the 1993 St. Charles International Piano Competition. He also shared the silver medal in the 1991 World Piano Competition of the American Music Scholarship Association. He received the Rildia B. O'Bryon Cliburn Scholarship in 1986. A resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, Michael Chertock is a regular performer at the Ravinia Festival in Chicago, Blossom Music Festival in Cleveland, and the Grand Tetons Music Festival in Wyoming.

Linda Eder

When Linda Eder was growing up in Brainerd, Minnesota, all she knew about Broadway was what she heard on her treasured recordings. Without the visuals, there was no context, no roles meant for men or women, young or older characters. She interpreted the songs in her imagination. She created Broadway, her way. Now, after starring in the Broadway smash Jekyll & Hyde, selling out concert halls around the country to stunning reviews, and recording six solo records of her own, Linda has decided to record Broadway My Way, a collection of her favorite songs from musicals. The album was released on Atlantic Records in February 2003 and coincided with a return engagement at Carnegie Hall. In contemplating Broadway My Way, Ms. Eder's interpretation becomes as relevant as the performance. Critics nationwide have described her style as "passionate," "vibrant," "warm," and "glorious." Linda Eder knew she wanted to be a singer by the time she was eight. She sang everywhere she could – as long as that "everywhere" didn't include other people. She came to regard Judy Garland, Barbra Streisand, and Eileen Farrell as her early teachers, and over the years her shyness abated as her confidence grew. Although she had performed at her father's restaurant while a teenager and done some nightclub work, her first true national exposure was via Starsearch, where she had an unprecedented thirteen weeks of success. It was also through Starsearch that Linda first met her husband-to-be, composer Frank Wildhorn (Jekyll & Hyde, The Scarlet Pimpernel, The Civil War, and the upcoming Camille Claudel), who was then in the planning stages for the theater version of Jekyll & Hyde. In 1990, the show premiered in Houston, with Linda performing the pivotal role of Lucy. The show went on a 35-city tour before opening on Broadway in 1997. Linda's performance earned her the Theatre World Award for Best Broadway Debut as well as Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle Award nominations for Best Actress in a Musical. After leaving Jekyll & Hyde, Linda performed two sold-out concerts at Carnegie Hall and recorded the following albums: her self-titled debut, released on RCA, And So Much More (Angel), and It's Time, It's No Secret Anymore, Christmas Stays the Same and Gold on Atlantic. She can also be heard on the original Broadway cast album for Jekyll & Hyde, and the original concept albums for her husband's other stage musicals, The Scarlet Pimpernel and The Civil War. Broadway My Way closes with "Gold," the title track of Linda's 2001 release. Written by Frank Wildhorn, the song is featured in the musical Camille Claudel, scheduled to open on Broadway with Linda in the starring role late in 2003. It was also chosen for the Opening Ceremony of the 2002 Olympics, where Kristi Yamaguchi skated to the song. To whatever extent she can, Linda Eder now stays home in Westchester, New York, with her husband and young son, generally performing 50 concert dates a year, in addition to charity engagements, and only in the United States. She singles out one cause in particular – the Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Ms. Eder has made several previous Boston Pops appearances.

SYMPHONY HALL INFORMATION

For Symphony Hall Concert and Ticket Information, call (617) 266-1492. For Boston Symphony/Boston Pops concert program information, call "C-O-N-C-E-R-T" (266-2378).

The Boston Symphony performs ten months a year, in Symphony Hall and at Tanglewood. For information about any of the orchestra's activities, please call Symphony Hall, visit our web site (see below), or write the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Hall, Boston, MA 02115.

The BSO's Website (http://www.bso.org) provides information on all Boston Symphony and Boston Pops activities at Symphony Hall and at Tanglewood, and is updated regularly. In addition, tickets for BSO and Pops concerts can be purchased online through a secure credit card transaction.

The Eunice S. and Julian Cohen Wing, adjacent to Symphony Hall on Huntington Avenue, may be entered by the Symphony Hall West Entrance on Huntington Avenue.

In the event of a building emergency, patrons will be notified by an announcement from the stage. Should the building need to be evacuated, please exit via the nearest door, or according to instructions.

The Box Office is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and Sunday at 1 p.m. through the first intermission.

To Purchase Pops Tickets: American Express, MasterCard, Visa, Diners Club, Discover, a personal check, and cash are accepted at the box office. To charge tickets on a major credit card, or to make a reservation and send payment by check, call SymphonyCharge at (617) 266-1200, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Friday (or until 4 p.m. on Saturday). Outside the 617 area code, phone 1-888-266-1200. To buy tickets online, visit the BSO's web site at www.bso.org. There is a $4.00 handling fee for each ticket ordered by phone or online.

For Patrons with Disabilities, an access service center, accessible restrooms, and elevators are available inside the Cohen Wing entrance to Symphony Hall on Huntington Avenue. For more information, call VOICE (617) 638-9431 or TTD/TTY (617) 638-9289.

Please Note: In consideration of our artists and patrons, late seating will take place only during the seating break approximately five minutes after the start of each performance.

PLEASE NOTE THAT SMOKING IS NOT PERMITTED ANYWHERE IN SYMPHONY HALL.

Camera and Recording Equipment may not be brought into Symphony Hall during concerts.

Lost and Found is located at the security desk at the stage door to Symphony Hall on St. Stephen Street.

First Aid Facilities for both men and women are available. On-call physicians attending concerts should leave their names and seat locations at the switchboard near the Massachusetts Avenue entrance.

Elevators are located outside the Hatch and Cabot-Cahners rooms on the Massachusetts Avenue side of Symphony Hall, and in the Cohen Wing.

Ladies' Rooms are located on the orchestra level, audience-left, at the stage end of the hall; on the first balcony, also audience-left, near the coatroom; and in the Cohen Wing.

Men's Rooms are located on the orchestra level, audience-right, outside the Hatch Room near the elevator; on the first-balcony level, also audience-right near the elevator, outside the Cabot-Cahners Room; and in the Cohen Wing.

Coatrooms are located on the orchestra and first-balcony levels audience-left, outside the Hatch and Cabot-Cahners rooms, and in the Cohen Wing. Please note that the BSO is not responsible for personal apparel or other property of patrons.

Lounges and Bar Service: There are two lounges in Symphony Hall. The Hatch Room on the orchestra level and the Cabot-Cahners Room on the first-balcony level serve drinks starting one hour before each performance.

Boston Pops Broadcasts: Saturday-evening Boston Pops concerts are broadcast live by WCRB 102.5 FM.

Friends of Pops: The Friends are donors to the Boston Symphony Orchestra Annual Fund. Friends receive BSO, the orchestra's newsletter, as well as priority ticket information and other benefits depending on their level of giving. For information, please call the Development Office at Symphony Hall weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at (617) 638-9276. If you are already a Friend and you have changed your address, please inform us by sending your new and old addresses to the Development Office, Symphony Hall, Boston, MA 02115. Including your patron number will assure a quick and accurate change of address in our files.

The Symphony Shop is located in the Cohen Wing at the West Entrance on Huntington Avenue and is open Tuesday through Friday from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., Saturday from noon until 6 p.m., and from one hour before each concert through intermission. The Symphony Shop features exclusive BSO and Pops merchandise, including a wide selection of compact discs, as well as jewelry, stationery items, coffee mugs, and an expanded line of BSO and Pops apparel. A selection of Symphony Shop merchandise is also available during concert hours outside the Cabot-Cahners Room. All proceeds benefit the Boston Symphony Orchestra. For further information and telephone orders, please call (617) 638-9383.

The Fine Art of Service

There is an art to exceeding the expectations of even the most discriminating patron. Our doorman smiles and greets you by name. Every detail of your proposal dinner is carefully executed by our Maitre d'—and she says yes. You have a craving for a cheeseburger in the middle of the night and our kitchen prepares it just the way you like it. At Four Seasons Hotel Boston the staff are masters of their craft; the service they provide is distinctive not only for the meticulous observation to detail but for the warmth with which it is delivered. And this is what our guests have come to appreciate. The finest service. Perfectly rendered.
